

PRAGUE ACCOMMODATIONS
WELCOMES TO KAROLINY SVETLE 21
(troubles? Call us on 251 512 502)

HERE ARE A FEW TIPS THAT WILL MAKE YOUR STAY MORE COMFORTABLE :

- The telephone number here is (+420) 222 222 928. You can call out, but not to numbers that begin with a zero because the phone is restricted against long distance calls. Unfortunately mobile phones are considered long distance. Anyone can call you here using the prefix above.
- PICKPOCKETS!!!!!! Watch out that you don't get crowded ANYWHERE. If you get in a crowd, put your hand on your money. If you are getting crowded, get vocal, shout and move aggressively. Pickpockets come in all different colors, genders and ages, so be aware. Don't carry a wallet, just take some cash and maybe one credit card. The rest of your stuff you can leave here in the apartment.
- To get a taxi, call 233 113 311 and wait for the operator to come on and speak English. Tell them the address of the flat, (pronounced Convict-ska) 7, the telephone number of the flat and where you want to go. It usually takes 10 minutes for a taxi to come.
- We have installed a wireless broadband connection in this apartment. It's called PANET and the password is WIFINETWORKPA (all caps) so you can go ahead and connect and use it any time you want. The smtp server is smtp.iol.cz.
- Before leaving, make sure to shut all the windows. That's to make sure no rain gets in if it does indeed storm
- Always lock both locks in the front door when you leave, first the top and then the bottom lock.
- If you should break something, please don't hide it, let us know so we can fix it for the next guest. There's nothing worse than discovering a busted something or other and not having enough time to set it straight for our next clients. Thanks a lot.
- There is a thermostat but it has been preset to a comfortable year around temperature.
- Quiet hours in the house (and in Prague for that matter) are 10 PM (2200) until 6 AM (0600). Please keep it down during those hours so as not to disturb the residents in the house.
- If any of the fuses go out, there is a fuse box in the entrance hall. Check to see if any of the switches are down and reset them by pressing them back up.

HANDY PLACES NEARBY

- There is a money machine if you have a card that is plus/access or one of the other international companies that allows you to draw dough off of your card. Go out the door to the right, follow the road as it twist until it goes up to Narodni Street. Take a left and about 20 meters down is a bank with a machine.
- You can park your car in the garage under the National Theater, which is about a five minute walk away. The price is 500 CZK per day.
- There's a really big supermarket called Tesco on Narodni. Walk out the door to the right, follow the street as it winds up to Narodni, turn left and two blocks down on the right you'll see the supermarket.
- Trams are nearby, the 17 will get you up and down the river. From Tesco you you catch a 22 or 23 to get up to the castle. Tickets for both the tram and the metros are available from Tabak stores. The 15 CZK tickets are good for a single ride for 15 minutes and the 20 CZK tickets are good for use on multiple means of transport (two different trams, a tram and metro) for an hour. If you are here for more than a couple of days, buy a 200 CZK ticket which is good on all forms of transport for three days. Remember to time-stamp your ticket in the tram or metro when you get on. If it's not validated you can get fined. It's a good idea to buy about 100 CZK worth of tickets and keep 'em in your wallet/purse so you can hop on a tram or metro any time you feel like it.
- The main Post Office is on Jindřišská, which is in the middle of Wenceslas Square. It's on the right side about halfway down the block. Letters are 13 CZK to post to the US, 9 CZK inside of Europe and postcards are 8 CZK to just about anywhere.

PLACES TO EAT

There are plenty of places to eat in Prague especially along the "golden walk" Which is where most tourists stroll. However, the best restaurants in Prague are not along that route, they reside off the beaten path, in nooks and crannies throughout the city. Here are a few of our favorites (locally on top, citywide, beneath):

Restaurace Stoleti, 0 minutes walk – Just below the apartment. Reservations pretty much a must, tel is 222 220 008. Good standard Czech/international food. They have tables outside in the summer and a very reasonable wine list. One of our favorite places.

Ristorante Sach Mat, 0 minutes walk – Out the front door, straight down the street, three buildings down on the left. The owner is from Bologna, the pizza and pasta are as good as you'll find in Italy and the coffee is exceptional. They also have breakfast if you don't want to wander too far.

Lehka Hlava, 3 minutes walk – Again, out the door, to the left two blocks and right up Borsov. This is an all vegetarian restaurant with a small but decent kitchen, good teas and excellent atmosphere. Check out the back room with the “stars” in the ceiling.

Bellevue restaurant - 5 minutes walk – out the door to the left all the way down to the end of the street until you come almost to the river and then left. Bellevue is expensive but top top quality. Especially great brunches.

OTHER PLACES WE LIKE TO EAT!

Restaurant Cerny Kohout, Vojtěšská 9, Praha 1, tel: 251 681 191, info@cernykohout.cz, open: Monday 18-23. Tues-Sat: 12-15, 18-23 . This is one of our new favorites as well. They post their lunch menu online every Tuesday (they are open for lunch from Tuesday-Friday) and for 199 CZK, it's a steal for a three-course meal. The food is outstanding, well and carefully prepared with small details and excellent waiting which you don't find in a lot of Prague Restaurants.. You should definitely get so you can enjoy a spectacular meal

Rossini Ristorantate Caffee, Chopinova 26, 130 00 Praha 3, tel: 222 729 041 another of our favorite restaurants in Prague. Owned by Mario, who hails from Rome and roots for Roma football team, this very small, very good restaurant is at its best on Saturdays when Mario is cooking. Don't order off the menu, ask for Mario to come out and give you his recommendations. And don't worry about the wine list either, the house wine is tasty and cheap. We ate an entirely fresh seafood dinner, complete with eight different types of seafood anti-pasta followed by a tagliatelle vongole. Wow! It's affordable, it's more than tasty and it's a place you have to try while visiting Prague.

Excellent French food in Stare Mesto comes to you from the Brasserie M, Vladislavova 17, Praha 1, tel: 224 054 070. The tables circle the kitchen which is open and you can watch the chefs and cooks prepare your meal. It's French style brasserie food, but be prepared to pay a little more than you would were you in France.

If you want to try French food outside, then make a booking at Kampa Park, located at Na Kampe 83, Prague 1, tel. 257 532 685. This is another great restaurant at the high end of the price range for Prague. On the Vltava river with a swell view of the Charles Bridge and an outdoor terrace, it can't be beat for romance and great food. A reservation is a must in the summer, especially if you want to get a table outside.

Just under the castle garden is Palffy Palac, Valdstejska 14, Prague 1, tel. 257 530 522. This restaurant is in a musical academy, hidden up a flight of stone stairs and in a back room. The ceilings are high and in the evening the only source of light on the tables are huge candelabras. Sheet music plasters the walls and (hopefully) Mozart, Brahms, Bach or Beethoven plays in the background. The menu here is small and on the same price level as the first three, but the romance and enchantment here can't be beat anywhere in town. There's also a terrace for the summer months and they have a very nice brunch from 11 AM on the weekends.

For Brunch we recommend Universal, V jircharich 6, Prague 1, tel. 224 934 416. Open from 11 on Sundays, they have a marvelous spread of cheeses, pastries, quiches, breads and will fix you some soup and eggs all for the very reasonable sum of 185 CZK.

One of the most trendy restaurants/bar in Prague is now Hergetova Cihelna, Cihelna 2b, Prague 1 tel: +420 257 535 53. They have a most amazing deck with one of the best views of the Charles Bridge in town. Good steak, a decent wine list in a beautiful environment make this a good place to see and be seen. Beware of the pastas though, they are lousy.

If you want a coffee or place to relax during the afternoon, try Kolibka on Reznicka 10, tel. 296 325 555. At this bar there are five different types of arabica coffees served plus another 10 types of tea along with the usual bar drinks. You can buy the art off the walls, which has been painted by handicapped people, and support the foundation that sponsors the cafe.

Dancing late night is done at the Roxy on Dlouha, which opens at 11 pm, Mecca in Prague 7 or at Karlovy Lazne, near the Charles Bridge. Good bars are Solidni Nejistota on Pstrossova, Seventh Heaven on Zborovska, the Blue Light on Josefska, St. Nicholas on Trziste (down the street from Vlasska 8), U Maleho Glena on Karmelitska and M1 on Masna street near Old Town Square.
